Ovarian Cancer Live Chat

with Maurie Markman, MD of the Cleveland Clinic

Monday, September 23rd from 4 – 5 PM ET

People Living With Cancer website (www.plwc.org)

Pre-registration for the chat begins September 17th.

In observance of Ovarian Cancer Awareness Month, the American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO) invites you to visit the new website, People Living With Cancer (www.plwc.org) and take part in a live question and answer chat with Maurie Markman, MD.

During this one-hour session, Dr. Markman will answer your questions on topics such as new treatments, early detection and how genetics may play a role in the disease. Dr. Markman is a medical oncologist with the Cleveland Clinic and member of the People Living With Cancer website Editorial Board.

The People Living With Cancer website provides accurate, reliable and oncologist approved cancer information to help people make informed decisions about their healthcare.

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CLINICAL ONCOLOGY

The American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO) is the world's leading professional organization representing medical professionals who treat people with cancer. The People Living With Cancer (www.plwc.org) website is ASCO's newest addition to its line of patient resources.

Facts

Ovarian cancer is the second most common gynecologic cancer in the United States.

It is estimated that more than 23,000 women will be diagnosed with ovarian cancer in 2002.
